

CALL TO ARTISTS

But is it Art?

Join us for an exciting show of BAD ART!

Kitsch? Junk? OMG? Celebrate April Fool's Day!

Saturday, April 1, 2017

10:00AM-5:00PM – 2nd floor of Keller's Plaza
107 South Putnam Street, Williamston MI 48895

Submitting art indicates support and endorsement of BAD ART as a genre, meaning art created in questionable taste and of vague cultural value.

Critics are saying, "The subject is compelling, but the art's not good."

CALL FOR ENTRIES: Submit 1-3 entries with accompanying entry form and RSVP to janereiter@sbcglobal.net by March 20th

Entries must be clearly labeled with artist's full name and title

Art displayed on easels and stands – it is not hung on the wall

Extremely light refreshments served

We invite everyone to vote on their favorites too!

DELIVERY DATE: Friday, March 31 – Noon-6:00PM

PICK UP OF ART: Saturday, April 1 – 5:00-6:00PM

Join us for a workshop to create your own bad painting at NOON * All supplies provided -- $5.00 fee

Take home your own homage to the greats of history;

Thomas Kinkade, LeRoy Neiman, Bob Ross, Emmett Kelly and Red Skelton

Sponsored by Carol Lacca & Jane Reiter of ART (artistic renegades triumph!) in cooperation with Peculiar Perspectives, The Party Shoppe, and Michigan Lighthouse Gallery of Keller's Plaza

For more information see Jane Reiter, Artist or But is it Art? on Facebook

